Brought From Tombstone.

Thomas Averstock, pioneer and well known citizen of Tombstone, was brought to the Copper Queen hospital suffering from a broken leg which he received from a fall. His old friend, August Baron, also of Tombstone, accompanied him here and attended to his wants on the journey. Mr. Averstock stood the trip well and although his recovery will necessarily be slow, yet his condition is very satisfactory to the physicians in charge of his case.

PROCLAMATION

I, RICHARD E. SLOAN, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 20, 1910, do hereby order and proclaim that on the 12th day of September, 1910, a general election shall be held by the qualified electors of the Territory of Arizona, for the election of delegates to the Constitutional Convention to form a constitution for the proposed State of Arizona. The number of said delegates so to be elected shall be fifty-two, and they shall be apportioned among the several counties of the territory in accordance with the provisions of said Act by the governor, chief justice and secretary of the Territory on the 25th day of June, 1910, and as follows: Apportionment as is as follows: Apache county, one delegate; Cochise county, two delegates; Coconino county, two delegates; Gila county, five delegates; Graham county, five delegates; Maricopa county, nine delegates; Mohave county, one delegate; Navajo county, two delegates; Pima county, five delegates; Pinal county, two delegates; Santa Cruz county, one delegate; Yavapai county, six delegates; and Yuma county, three delegates.

At said election, therefore, each county shall elect the number of delegates so as aforesaid apportioned to it; that is to say Apache county shall elect one delegate; Cochise county shall elect two delegates; Coconino county shall elect two delegates; Gila county shall elect five delegates; Graham county shall elect five delegates; Maricopa county shall elect nine delegates; Mohave county shall elect one delegate; Navajo county shall elect two delegates; Pima county shall elect five delegates; Pinal county shall elect two delegates; Santa Cruz county shall elect one delegate; and Yuma county shall elect three delegates.

I further proclaim, that under the terms of said Act of Congress, a qualified elector at said election shall be any male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have resided in the Territory at least twelve months, next proceeding the date fixed for delegates to said constitutional convention as herein provided for, and who shall possess in other respects the qualifications of an elector as provided by Title XX, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1901.

I further proclaim that under said Act of Congress such election for delegates shall be held and conducted, the returns made, and the certificates of persons elected to such convention issued as nearly as may be, in the same manner as is prescribed by the laws of said Territory regulating elections therein of members of the legislature existing at the time of the last election of said members of the legislature and the provisions of said laws in all respects, including the qualifications of electors and registration, and hereby made applicable to the election herein provided for. I further proclaim that under the terms of said Act of Congress it is made the duty of the board of supervisors of each county of the Territory within ten days after the date of this proclamation to meet and authorize and require a registration of the qualified electors of each county; provided, however, that there need not be a registration of the qualified electors whose names appear on the great register of said county for the year 1908, but all such names, together with such as may be re-registered under the provisions of this section shall constitute the great register of said county and be used at the election herein provided for; and so far as the same is consistent with the provisions of said Act, such registration, as also the making up, printing, distribution and use of such great register, shall in all respects conform to and be governed by the provisions of Chapter 2 of Title XX, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1901.

And I do hereby offer a reward of Fifty ($50) dollars for the arrest and conviction of any and every person violating any of the provisions of Title IV, Art. 1 of the Penal Code, such reward to be paid until the total amount hereafter expended for the purpose reaches the amount of One Thousand ($1,000) dollars.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Territory to be affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this twenty-eighth day of June, A. D. Nineteen Hundred and Ten.

RICHARD E. SLOAN
By the governor. (SEAL)
Secretary of Arizona.

Pursuant to the above Proclamation a general election is hereby called to be held September 12, 1910, and notice is hereby given that in accordance with Chapter 68, Session Laws of 1905, entitled "TO PROVIDE FOR THE PRIMARY POLITICAL ELECTIONS AND THE MANNER OF HOLDING SAME," primaries for the election of delegates to the Republic, Democratic and Socialist Conventions will be held in the voting precincts in Cochise County, Arizona on the 8th day of August, 1910, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m. and the aforesaid County Conventions will be held August 20, 1910, at one o'clock p. m. of said day, the republican convention to be held at Benson, the democratic convention to be held at Douglas and the Socialist convention to be held at Lowell, at which conventions candidates for Delegates to the Constitutional convention to form a Constitution for the proposed state of Arizona will be nominated to be voted on at the general election to be held September 12, 1910.

The number of delegates to the County Nominating Convention to be elected at the aforesaid primaries are as follows:
